

TOUCH THE SKY WITH A FINGER: MATTERHORN ALPINE CROSSING

DESCRIPTION

An exciting experience, in view of impressive peaks, considered among the most spectacular marvels of nature in the world. It is not necessary to be an Alpine climber to reach high altitudes: thanks to Matterhorn Alpine Crossing, the facility that directly connects Breuil-Cervinia and Zermatt and represents a true engineering masterpiece, visitors can quickly reach altitudes of over 3,000 metres to admire the Plateau Rosà glacier, the Matterhorn and the surrounding Alpine landscapes up close, thanks to the highest cable car in the Alps.

REQUIRED ABILITIES

For all. Health problems do not discourage staying at high altitudes, since the routes are not especially long.

LENGTH OF THE ACTIVITY

From a minimum of 2 hours to a half day or more, according to the intended activity.

KIND OF OFFER

Climb by cableway towards the glacier of Plateau Rosà and Klein Matterhorn to both reach the ski resort and/or enjoy the high mountains, the clear sky, the intense light of the sun and the crisp air. Possibility or reserving various additional activities.

HOW TO GET THERE

You may arrive conveniently by car or by bus to the parking adjacent to the facility.
